

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: March 11, 2026

Allied Technology Group, LLC (“Company,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you share with us. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard information when you visit our website, engage our services, or communicate with us, including via SMS, email, voice, or other messaging channels.

By using our website or services, you consent to the practices described in this Privacy Policy.

1. Information We Collect

Information you provide voluntarily such as name, company name, job title, email address, phone number, and information submitted through website forms. We also collect limited technical data such as IP address, browser type, and usage data.

2. How We Use Your Information

We use personal information to provide services, communicate service and marketing information (where permitted), improve services, and comply with legal obligations.

3. Messaging and SMS Communications

By providing your phone number, you consent to receive SMS or MMS messages related to our services. Message frequency may vary. Message and data rates may apply.

4. Opt-Out Rights

You may opt out of SMS communications at any time by replying STOP to any message or using an included unsubscribe link. You may opt out of marketing emails using the unsubscribe link or by contacting us directly. Transactional messages may still be sent.

5. Third-Party Providers

We may use trusted third-party providers, including messaging platforms such as ClickSend, to process communications. These providers are contractually required to safeguard your data.

6. Data Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect your information.

7. Data Retention

We retain information only as long as necessary for business and legal purposes.

8. Children's Privacy

Our services are not directed to children under 13.

9. Policy Updates

We may update this policy periodically.
